Gender economics and the economics of discrimination

PhD reading group 2020-21

Cecilia García Peñalosa

The aim of the reading groups to look at recent work on gender and discrimination. Two papers will be presented in each session by students. The rest of the group will have read them and will discuss them.

Structure: 6 2-hour sessions over a period of 3 months (meeting fortnightly).

There will be an initial meeting to allocate papers and make the planning of the reading group sessions. I propose 8 topics and we will choose together 6 of them. I am open to other suggestions of topics and/or articles.

Meetings: Thursdays 10h15-12h15

Dates: To be determined
