

One year research grants for 4th or 5th year PhD students 2021-2022

The Aix-Marseille School of Economics (AMSE) is inviting applications for one-year research grants starting in September or October 2021. Students must be in their fourth year (preferably) or fifth year of PhD in economics in 2021-2022, and about to complete their PhD.

Any research field covered by AMSE is eligible. Applications are open both to French and to non-French students. Knowledge of French is not necessary. Students will be provided with a desk in one of the AMSE buildings, in Marseille or Aix-en-Provence, and will participate to AMSE scientific activities. Students do not need to register as a PhD student at Aix-Marseille University but physical presence in AMSE facilities is required.

The monthly salary is around 1400 euros net of social contributions. The grant includes social security coverage. Participation to up to three high-level international conferences during the year will be funded.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

- A detailed CV (education background, research projects undertaken before or parallel to the PhD, conference attendance, visiting positions,...).
- A doctoral research project and exact state of progress, with a detailed plan and status of each chapter (published, submitted, working paper, in progress, not started), also mentioning the AMSE researchers or themes of research with whom important interactions are likely to exist. This part of the application should not be more than 5-page long.
- A transcript of grades obtained during the two years of Master's study and for any other relevant degree.
- At least two recommendation letters, including one from the PhD advisor, sent directly and confidentially to bernadette.vouriot@univ-amu.fr.

The first three items must be included in a single pdf file, following the order given above, and the name of the file has to be: MynameOneYear.pdf.

Students will receive the result of the admission procedure before the beginning of May 2021. An interview may be organized.

Applications have to be sent to bernadette.vouriot@univ-amu.fr by April 16th, 2021.
