

Julien Silhol

42 years old
59, rue de l'Ourcq
75019 Paris
+33 06 81 86 74 95
julien.SILHOL@insee.fr

Junior economist

Experience

- Since September 2018: Economist in 'Fiscal policy and welfare programs' unit, Insee (French national institute for public statistics and economic studies).
- From 2016 to 2018: Student at the engineer School of statistics engineer (ENSAE). Learning of statistical methods, econometric modelling, assessment of public policies...
- From 2001 to 2016: mathematic and informatics teacher
 - classes for secondary school, high school and students (BTS)
 - member of examination board for CAPES and Science-Po (competitive exams); competitive exam trainer in preparatory classes for "grandes écoles"
 - member of academic think tanks (about use of digital at school, way of teaching in high school)
 - project coordinator (creation and program writing with student of drone for a choreographic show, implementation of peers mentoring by pupils and student,)
 - teaching trainer (for professional)
 - member of administration or disciplinary boards

Education and training

- ENSAE-paristech School of statistics engineer (onboarding for INSEE, 2016-2018)
- Master degree in training for professional teacher, Diderot University (Paris, 2012)
- Agrégation and CAPES of mathematics (competitive exam, 2009 and 2001)
- Master of Mathematics (1999)

Publication and posters

- Posters: Consequences of working in a medical desert on the GP practices and workload ("Practices and work condition of GP in France", DREES, November 2018)
- Past publications:
 - Consequences of working in a medical desert on the GP practices and workload ; RFAS, June 2019 (with C. Marbot, B.Ventelou and A. Zaytseva)
 - Mathematics textbook for high school (Hachette, 2014)
- Ongoing publications:
 - Effect of openings to trades on production, prices and markups (Melitz models): how robust are the specifications of Chen, Imbs and Scott?

Languages and software

- Software: SAS, R
- Languages: English (professional)

Hobby : Piano player (concert and recording)